

Wharton Executive Education partners with TSW

Mumbai, 23rd October 2018: TSW has signed an agreement with Wharton Executive Education to market two marquee courses in India - General Management Program and Advanced Finance Program. The courses are designed by Wharton Executive Education to cater to business owners/entrepreneurs, senior business leaders, senior-level executives and high-potential professionals. These courses are offered fully in the US.

The General Management Program (GMP) is designed to enhance the unique global perspective of business leaders and groom them to take on business challenges they face in an ever changing world. The course has been developed for owners / entrepreneurs and senior business leaders having at least 10 years of managerial experience. The course is flexible and intended to be completed within a two-year span. Each program is highly experiential and is taught by world-class faculty.

Advanced Finance Program (AFP) is a unique opportunity for senior-level executives and high-potential professionals who are rapidly ascending in their career to learn and master finance in an immersive yet flexible learning journey. The course is taught by the same distinguished Wharton faculty who teach the top-ranked MBA program. AFP is for senior-level executives and high-potential professionals pursuing career in the area of modern finance.

Commenting on the partnership, David Heckman, Regional Director, Wharton Executive Education, said, “India is among the top countries in the world where education is deeply embedded in its culture. At Wharton, we have a large number of Indian students across our campuses. We see a great opportunity in executive education space in the country having both – a congenial business environment and a bright demographic dividend. India is a focal point for global companies owing to its population, purchasing power, expanding consumption and a stable geopolitical environment. With Wharton’s established reputation and TSW’s infrastructure and reach, we are excited to embark on a new journey”.

Announcing the development, Anish Srikrishna, President, TSW, said, “We are proud to be associated with Wharton Executive Education, to bring the absolute best in executive education programs to India. The association is in keeping with our vision - to bring world-class education to India by making it accessible. We look forward to a long and multifaceted relationship with Wharton Executive Education”

The programs offer executives the flexibility to select from a wide variety of open-enrolment programs, ability to customize education experience to support specific career goals, opportunity to build a global peer network, executive coaching and a personalized Wharton consultation to guide the design of program experience for every participant.

To know more log on to Email: exec-edcorporate@timestsw.com or call: 7400097514

About TSW

TSW is an initiative by Times Professional Learning aimed to enhance leadership and general management skills of working professionals. With a vision to make world-class education accessible to aspiring business leaders through strategic collaborations, TSW’s passion for excellence and a belief that “Executive Education Empowers” work hand in hand with the organization’s aim to impart knowledge to business professionals nationwide.

About the Wharton Executive Education and The Wharton School

Founded in 1881 as the first collegiate business school, the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania is recognized globally for intellectual leadership and ongoing innovation across every major discipline of business education. With a broad global community and one of the most published business school faculties, Wharton creates economic and social value around the world. The School has 5,000 undergraduate, MBA, executive MBA, and doctoral students. Wharton Executive Education trains more than 13,000 participants in executive education programs annually; and has a powerful alumni network of 98,000.